BILLINGS – A 57-year-old homeless man arrested on Christmas Eve for breaking into a Billings business and stealing $9.30 in coins has pleaded guilty to felony burglary.

Robert Oren Frickel entered his plea Friday before District Judge Mary Jane Knisely. She scheduled sentencing for June 5. Frickel has remained in custody at the county jail since his arrest.

²⁰¹¹ Frickel admitted that on Dec. 24 he broke into a dry cleaning store before the business opened to take money from the cash register. His theft netted him $9.30 in quarters and dimes.

Two employees were in the store. One restrained Frickel while the other called police.

Frickel told an officer he broke into the business because he was hungry and wanted to get a hotel room for the night.
